SENATE SILVER RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The recent action of the senate of the United States in promptly passing the free coinage of silver bill, is a move in the direction of restoration of prices and prosperity to the agricultural industry; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the state of Kansas urge upon the national House of Representatives prompt concurrence in the passage of the Senate silver bill; that this body, representing the Republicans of Kansas, respectfully but earnestly request our delegation in Congress to insist, in the interest of the country and the welfare of the Republican party in the west, upon the passage of the bill and its approval by the Republican executive, as being in line with Republican pledges.

Resolved, That the secretary of the Senate is hereby instructed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each member of the Kansas delegation in Congress.

Passed by the Republican Senate Jan. 28, '91, yeas 34, nays 5; Senators Forney and Chester L. Long voting aye.

The way to protect labor is to run colored men in to take the places of white men.

There are eleven colored men on the Hunnewell branch sections. Eleven white men are hunting jobs as a consequence.

Rev. Sam Small is going to start a People's party paper in Georgia to be called the "People's Voice." How "Nangle's Voice" does expand.

We hear of a good many Republican farmers who have employed colored farm hands. The white man who is out of a job will know who to thank.

The National Economist says Kolb was weaker than the People's party in Alabama—that he could not poll over 75 per cent of the anti-Cleveland vote.

The Monitor is dragging that old "joke of southern war claims to the front again with which to frighten and harrow the prejudices of gudgeons.

The first man to get in on the VOICE's ground floor for the third volume, (barring a number who have heretofore paid for two or three years in advance) was Mr. J. Hall, of Corbin. Mr. Hall called at our office with his third dollar Monday.

The Texas Democratic State convention split in twain and put two tickets in the field. The People's party had a fair chance to carry the state as it was, and this split unless it is healed, (of which there is little prospect,) will make it certain. Hurrah for Texas.

Notwithstanding all the loud mouthings of Republican organs, the People's party will carry Kansas for Weaver and Field, the Seventh District for Jerry Simpson and Sumner county for the whole ticket. Just stick a pin here, and verify these assertions by the November election returns.

Speaking of the objections offered by the ways and means committee to the sub-treasury plan, the Christian Standard says:

One of these objections is thrown in the way of every movement to deliver the people from the power of monopolies which really usurp governmental functions—namely, the dangerous multiplication of governmental employes. The truth is that the great majority of Federal employes, such as postmasters, etc., might and should be elected by the people. In many communities are men in Federal employment not well qualified for their business and who never would have been in office if the community had had a vote in the matter.

The Republicans of the South Representative district have called their nominating convention to meet at South Haven September 3. They will also nominate a candidate for county commissioner on that day. It is reported that a deal is on foot with the Democrats which perhaps accounts for it having been delayed until after the Democratic convention. It is hardly to be supposed for an instant, however, that the righteous Republican party would be participating in any such "unholy" business! Oh, no!

In his letter to the Standard last week Luke Herring paid the following fraternal compliment:

We notice by home papers that both the Republican and Alliance conventions have been held and that each party has honored itself by placing an editor on the ticket. Lyman Naugle would make a first class probate judge. His ability to well fill the office cannot be questioned. He is well known and popular with his party and will clean up the full vote. If we are not mistaken he will make his opponents a very tight race. R. T. Simons, editor of the Caldwell News, Republican nominee for state senator, is well fitted to fill any representative office with dignity and ability. He can make a forcible talk upon any public question and always creates a favorable impression. While we are opposed to him politically, we have always considered him a clean politician and a fair opponent.

A very tangible specimen of Alliance legislation and one that appeals directly to the pockets of the tax-payers of this county, is the law that gives the county surveyor $1,200 a year for keeping his office door propped open with a twenty-pound derrick, six days out of every week. The law is a good thing for the surveyor, but hard on the people who foot the bills.—Monitor.

This reminds us of the story told by a citizen of Jackson township. One of those fellows who would vote for a "yaller dog" if he was on the Republican ticket said to a People's party man: "See what your Alliance Legislature done—passed a law giving the surveyor $4.00 per day!" "Well," says the intelligent Populist, "what was your Republican Senate and Governor doing all this time?" "Oh, d—n it, you bought 'em!" replied the "yaller dog" advocate.

The Denver News, which is a member of the Associated Press, since it came out for Weaver and the People, has awoke to the glaring partiality of that institution in reporting the news. Here are two sample kicks:

The Tennessee Populists held a two day's state convention on Wednesday and Thursday last and nominated Governor Buchanan and a full state ticket. The Associated press has not heard of this matter of news.

The Associated press sent columns of stuff about Reid, the advocate of rat printing offices, and a little side show in Iowa, but not a line about the state convention of the People's party in Tennessee, or the movements of the People's presidential candidate. Such partisan bias upon the part of the Associated press is becoming a scandal all over the United States.

Governor Lewelling passed through Wellington Monday morning on his way to Anthony where the Populists had a big rally. He spent two hours here in conversation with his friends. The first thing that greeted his eyesight was 25 negroes who had just landed at the depot. He says it is a sight common to nearly every depot platform with which he comes in contact. Out in the western counties, Mexicans are being colonized from Colorado and New Mexico. They are a miserable burlesque on humanity but they know enough to hand a ballot through the window. Notwithstanding this sort of tactics Mr. Lewelling feels sure of his election. He depends on the citizens of the commonwealth to see that their suffrage is not thus taken away from them.

In attempting to figure out the growth of the People's party on the percentage basis the editorial candidate for probate judge neglects to mention, by way of comparison, that the Republicans have done some even taller gaining along the same line. His statement that the Populist vote increased from 38 per cent. of the total in 1890 to 41 per cent. of the total in 1891 needs to be laid alongside the equally palpable fact that the Republicans increased their percentage of the total vote from 41 per cent. in 1890 to 47 per cent. the year after.—Monitor.

Our neighbor forgets to take into consideration the Democratic votes its party received last year for what was considered at the time "an entirely satisfactory equivalent." Eliminate this vote, as it will be eliminated this year, and place it on our side where it will place itself this fall and the disparity in gain percentage will be quite aggravating! Our three per cent gain was made on a square, flat-footed test of pure People's party strength over the alleged fusion vote of 1890, and yours was made by a corresponding decrease in the Democratic vote.

A large number of Wellington Populists will go down to Caldwell next Thursday to attend Jerry Simpson's first meeting. All the county candidates will be present.

Cholera infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When that remedy is used and the treatment as directed with each bottle is followed, a cure is certain. Mrs. Fanny Lauderdale, of Rock, Pope Co., Ill., says it cured her baby of cholera infantum and she thinks saved its life. A. W. Walter, a prominent merchant at Waltersburg, Ill., says it cured his baby boy of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that "he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or each of any medicine," but Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured him. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. Can chronic diarrhoea be cured? Those who think not, should read the following from Mr. Joseph McGuffin of Spaulding, Union County, Iowa. He says: "I was troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea and used many kinds of medicine; but nothing with permanent effect for good, until I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I would say to every one in need of medicine for the ailment mentioned and kindred diseases try the Remedy, and like myself, you will never be without it in your home." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H.
